SCHEDULE

April 21:

Immigration Update (Cynthia Yarbrough)

A general overview of the filing procedures, filing deadlines and immigration issues facing employers in 2017. Whether you are a first-time filer or a seasoned vet, this session will discuss the foundation and current state of employment-based immigration law in the United States in 2017.

Workplace Violence Prevention (Ed Foulke)

In the wake of recent tragedies, employers have a heightened interest in strategies to minimize workplace violence and related legal risks. Does your company have a strategic plan to minimize violence and risks? Are your employees equipped to identify potential threats? What happens after the crisis?

This presentation will cover:

- What is Workplace Violence?
- Most Common Types of Workplace Violence and Cost
- Active Shooter Profile and Response
- How are Employers Liable for Workplace Violence?
- How to Prevent Workplace Violence
- Responding to Threats and Violence
- Actions After a Crisis
- Most Common Errors Made by Companies

June 16:

What the New Administration Means for Employment Law (Joe Shelton)

Since the election, there has been much talk about the new administration's initiatives. With inauguration day from speculation to reality. Join us for analysis on the what we learned from the first 100 days and the impact this will have on your business.

Avoiding Wage and Hour Violations, Penalties and Lawsuits (Matt Simpson)

Are you paying your employees lawfully? Are all of your workers properly classified? Are your time records really accurate? This presentation will provide an overview of what employers and human resources professionals need to know about wage-hour compliance. This will include the possible Fair Labor Standards Act exemption changes and how they might affect employers, the steep rise in government investigations and lawsuits in recent years, and how thoughtful compliance can mitigate risk.

September 15:

From Termination to Trial: Myra Creighton v. GEAR Enterprises LLC (Joe Shelton)

Follow the story of GEAR Enterprises LLC as they terminate an employee and then deal with the aftermath of the termination. They claim the employee was terminated for poor performance, but the former employee believes otherwise. Attendees will witness a mock trial via a series of video vignettes to determine what really happened and how GEAR Enterprises LLC may have avoided the lawsuit. Are your managers and supervisors a potential liability in an employment litigation case? If you have doubts, you should attend this mock trial presentation.
